

Here are the “fun facts” shared by our staff and volunteers!

Colleen Brennan	Worked as an alcohol and drug counselor at a Minneapolis hospital
Sharon Brenner	Won a lawnmower at a Logger's Convention - then had to figure out how to get it into the elevator and push it through the Duluth Hotel where the event was held
Bobbie Collins	Had an SCCA National License and raced a Formula Vee in the early 70's
Dan Edson	First came to Cook County in 1947 and moved here in 1976
Carrie Framsted	Sang in the Twin Cities Women's Choir for 12 years
Nancy Giguere	Used to teach French & Spanish
George Harrelson	Is currently studying the Russian language
Carol Harris	Graduated from the University of Michigan with a bachelor's degree in nursing
Christie John	Graduated from a Presbyterian seminary
Jayne Johnson	Is a ham radio operator.
Jack McHugh	Raised goats on a hobby farm a few decades ago
Gine Meissner	Was the first-born American of her siblings and spoke German before she learned English
Steve Nielson	Attended 4 grade schools and 3 high schools
Martha Olson	Lived in Costa Rica for 8 months
Phyllis Parker	Was raised on a chicken farm and killed 400 chickens before going to school
Lynn Pietrick	Loves liver(!)
Ann Russ	Portaged a canoe for 240 rods nonstop three days before her 71st birthday
Nancy Starr	Her great-great grandfather adopted the family surname suggested by then circuit court judge Abraham Lincoln
Julie Wilson	Has a blind dog
John Wolf	Planted 16 apple trees this year and expects to live to enjoy their fruit